

BRIE STROHMEYER:

Brie Strohmeyer is an entertainment reporter, host and TV Personality. Her work includes covering red carpets, industry parties, press junkets and sit down interviews. She's worked with The Hollywood Reporter and 7 Network Australia among others. Her most noted work focuses on interviewing celebrities and their adorable pets.

Brie made international news when she starred in the Australian reality show for Fox studios, I Married A Stranger. She has appeared in National and international commercial campaigns. Brie graduated with a degree in Communications from the University of Kansas after attending Saint Mary's of Notre Dame. She continued studies in broadcasting at UCLA.

In addition to her work in front of the camera she also works in entertainment publicity and social media marketing. In her free time you'll usually find her on her phone on Instagram & Twitter or hanging with her buddy Leo, her rescue Yorkie.